👤 PROFILE

Having lived and worked across the world, I'm now transitioning to a web development role. I have always had a strong interest in web aesthetics and the user experience. In order to build technical skills, I attended and graduated from Le Wagon's Tokyo Web Development bootcamp. I am now seeking a Front-End Developer position in Tokyo, Japan.

💡 SKILLS

Web Development (HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript, Ruby, Ruby On Rails, GitHub, VS Code, Figma, Heroku, SQL, Terminal, currently learning React)

Online Marketing (Project Management, Community Management, Content Creation/Curation)

💬 LANGUAGES

French (Native)

English (Native Level)

Spanish (Full Working Proficiency)

Japanese (Elementary Proficiency)

🚀 WEB PROJECTS

Flip It!, A music streaming platform that allows artists to collaborate through remixing and sampling ✍️

In a team of 4, we built the entire app:

Designed the UX/UI prototype on Figma | Wrote the back-end code on Ruby On Rails | Developed responsive pages with HTML, CSS, JS | Collaborated on GitHub

My specific roles: coded landing page, search bar, filters, search result page, navbar and designed the prototype

Dogs For Days, A marketplace designed for dog owners to rent their pet to dog lovers ✍️

👛 PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

English Teacher, Multiple employers

2016 – 2023 | Tokyo, Sydney, Gold Coast

My excitement for travelling and new challenges me led me to teach English in 3 different countries. My 7-years experience teaching all ages and levels in multiple countries strengthened my adaptability and communication skills significantly. I am always open to new environments and roles

Web Marketing Account Manager, Semply Digital

April 2014 – April 2015 | Marseille, France

- Created content, managed communities on social platforms and increased engagement
- Monitored online campaigns and enhanced products' visibility
- Developed and maintained client relationships

🎓 EDUCATION

Web Development Bootcamp, Le Wagon ✍️

September 2023 | Tokyo, Japan

Ruby, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Ruby on Rails, Figma, GitHub, and Slack through daily challenges | Teamwork Projects

Master's Degree in Public Marketing

June 2013 | Aix-en-Provence, France

Quantitative/qualitative market analysis | Multi-channel communications | Campaign strategy

Bachelor's Degree in English

June 2011 | Aix-en-Provence, France

American/British Literature and History | Linguistics | Teaching Methods

🌐 INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

I have lived in five different countries on three continents and developed adaptability skills and independence through my experiences. New challenges inspire me and I'm looking for my next!
