👤 PROFILE

With over a decade of international experience and a background in Teaching and Marketing, I bring a unique perspective to UX Design. I honed my skills in user-centered design through a UX bootcamp at IronHack in Barcelona, and developed a strong foundation in front-end development at Le Wagon's Tokyo bootcamp. This combination enables me to seamlessly bridge design and implementation. Passionate about creating impactful digital solutions, I thrive in diverse, fast-paced environments
